GET RELIABLE INFORMATION.

We would advise all persons who are contemplating a trip to the West, either for pleasure or for permanent settlement, to first select the BEST AND MOST DIRECT ROUTE. R'y, and from Chicago via the C., B. & Q. R. R. via Quincy to St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City, WITHOUT CHANGE, making direct connections at these points with all trains for the West and South, should satisfy every one that this is THE ROUTE. Should you desire a map of this line, or any information regarding time or rates, the same will be gladly furnished upon application, either by letter or in person, to T. A NUT FOR SAMUEL.

From the New York Times.

It is one of the Democratic grievances as laid down by Governor Tilden, that the "Governmental consumption" has made hard times. Some $3,000,000,000 of this amount is set down to the charge of local expenditure. Did it ever ocur to Mr. Tilden how much of this was stolen by the Tammany ring? It is usually estimated at from thirty to fifty millions of dollars. If one dollar in a hundred went to the Democratic thieves in one city, how much would go in the future to democratic officials firmly installed in the whole government? It is said that Mr. Tilden would prevent such things as President. He might have prevented them when he was chairman of the Democratic State Committee if he had chosen. All that was necessary was a thorough exposure and if he could not have make that he is a far less shrewd man than he claims credit for being. On the whole, Mr. Tilden as a breakwater against governmental consumption.

A TIMELY RESCUE.

The Troy N. Y. Press says: "Last week Saturday, a well known citizen of Lansingburg, whose dread of notoriety has kept him from reporting the occurrence, was rowing down the river from Lansingburg. Happening to look into the water, while rowing near the shore in the vicinity of Bolton's brewery, he saw the body of a boy lying face upward on the bottom of the river. His first impulse was to dive into the water, and he did. Securing the body, he carried it to a house, which singularly enough happened to be the residence of the boy's mother, who had, until the appearance of the stranger with his body, supposed that her son was in the yard playing. The body was still warm, and after an hour's labor the lad was resuscitated. He is now as well as, and will doubtless remember as long as he shall live how near he was on that occasion to death's door."

A HEROIC DEATH.—Mr. Sampson, a civil engineer of Providence, R. I., sacrificed himself at Nantucket, Mass., a few days ago, to save some friends.—He was in a boat with two other young men. The latter went forward to adjust the sail and left Mr. Sampson at the helm. By mistake he put the helm up instead of down, as he had been ordered, and the boat capsized, leaving the three men clinging to an oar. Finding this insufficient to sustain them, Mr. Sampson told the others that he thought their lives of more consequence than his own, gave up his hold and immediately sank. His friends were rescued.

AN UNDERTAKER.—A gentleman who has been traveling for a paint and oil house not far from Oliver street, this city, was interviewed by a friend in the country relative to business; when he was informed that he had "gone into the undertaker's business." The friend expressed much surprise, until the gentleman informed him he "had undertaken to find business but had failed." Pass the cigars.—Boston Globe.

The nerves of women says the Austin Nevada Reveille, are something hard to understand. A woman who can throw a tea cup at her husband's head with unerring aim will wake the echoes with her screams the next minute if a bug happens to light on the back of her neck; and a woman who could coolly horsewhip a man who had slandered her, will jump on a chair and holler blue murder at the sight of a mouse on the carpet.

The man who designed our State seal is dead. In the language of the Dutch poet, "It is well." Any man who would to make people believe a full grown buffalo bull, would deliberately rush up to a granger who was chopping down a tree at sunrise ought to die.—Indiana Paper.

FORTY YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

DR. C. McLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF Hepatitis or Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL.

For all Bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist on your druggist or storekeeper giving you the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

To those wishing to give DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS a trial, we will mail post paid to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twenty-five cents.

By order of the county central committee.

R. P. LITTLE, Chairman.
JOHN A. BARNES, Secretary.

THE order of the Secretary of War, directing General Sherman to hold his spare forces in readiness to enforce the Scott Lord resolution, has excited the wrath of some of the Tilden organs.—It is pronounced an attempt to regulate the elections by the bayonet, and we have a revival of the twaddle about military interference with the free exercise of the ballot.

This is a perversion of plain facts,—General Sherman is instructed not to interfere with the freedom of the ballot, but to see that that freedom is preserved, and that nobody, white or black, is deprived of the privilege of voting as he may elect, through fraud, intimidation or violence. He is to carry out the spirit of the resolution passed by the House, and his instructions go no further.

It follows that if there is no attempt anywhere to prevent the qualified citizens of the United States from voting, there will be no occasion for military intervention. The troops are to be so disposed as to be ready to interpose between the voter and those who may seek to deprive him of his electoral right. It is a precaution taken to insure a fair and free election.

It is absurd to talk of overawing the South with a display of military force. There are not four thousand soldiers, all counted, scattered over the Southern States—a mere handful of men—and no reserve to be poured into them. And had he twice or three times as many soldiers at his disposal there is nothing in General Sherman's character or antecedents to justify suspicion that he would employ them for any other purpose than to carry out the plain instructions given under the resolution of the House.

The democracy profess a full acceptance of the amendments of the constitution. They adopted the Scott Lord resolution as a further evidence of the fullness and completeness of that acceptance. They make large professions of a desire and design to secure the freedom of the franchise. If this be not more profession, a plausible hypocrisy, they will so conduct themselves at the polls in November that no voter will have cause to complain, and Gen. Sherman no occasion to use the troops.—Chi. Commercial.

AS A PRESIDENT ELECTED BY THE SOUTH.

[Boston Journal, 16th.]

The emphasis which Mr. Blaine, in his Portland speech, has given to the States Rights and anti-National views of Samuel J. Tilden, will be appreciated when it is considered that the latter, if he is elected President at all, will be indebted for his election chiefly to the South, and will naturally be surrounded and influenced by Southern advisers. Is he naturally inclined, therefore, or committed to Southern doctrines, so that he would easily become subject to an undue control by those who have so recently thrust the Nation to the brink of ruin? It may be said that this is unreasonably questioning Tilden's firmness and fidelity to the dictates of his own judgment. Unhappily he has just given reason for harboring these very doubts. He has always claimed to be a hard-money man, and he is on record as a supporter of the Resumption Act. And yet he has recently given in his adhesion to the repeal of the distinguishing clause of that act, and has thus allied himself with the inflationists of the West, simply because it is for his partisan interest so to do. If, then, he should by Southern votes be called to the Presidency, how much more likely would he be to surrrender to disloyal influences if it should appear that he was always in theoretical accord with those who hope still to gain through the Democratic party what they lost through their attempt at secession?

The first peculiarity which strikes any fair-minded man in reviewing the career of Tilden is that he showed no positive sympathy in behalf of the Government and the Union during the momentous period of the four years' war. He was then a man of note and influence, standing high at least in the councils of the Democratic party in the great State of New York, where he could have been of decided assistance in the cause of loyalty. That he was not is saying plainly enough what ground he occupied. He was one of the little party of prominent New Yorkers whom Dr. Russell met in the March preceding the April which opened the rebellion, and whom he heard discussing the great question of the day. He got the impression from them that coercion of the secessionists was all wrong, and, says Dr. Russell: "The Democrats behold with silent satisfaction the trouble into which the Republican triumph has plunged the country, and are not disposed to extricate them." Even before Lincoln's election Tilden had openly declared that the framers of our Government had "left revolution organized whenever it should be demanded by the public opinion of a State—left it with the power to snap the tie of a confederation, as a Nation might break a treaty, and to repel coercion as a Nation might repel invasion." How could a man who held such notions take a bold stand in defense of the Union? Samuel J. Tilden did not. Even down to the year 1864, when the gigantic conflict had been nearly fought out, he acquiesced in the the Chicago Democratic platform, which declared that the war was a failure, that public liberty and private right had alike been broken down, and that immediate effort ought to be set on foot for the cessation of hostilities. It is pretended that Tilden opposed this declaration in the Committee on Resolutions of which he was a member. There is the man again—if he did not approve such utterances, he made no public record of his opposition, brought forward no minority report, but acquiesced to all intents and purposes.

Could more firmness be expected of him if he should find himself seated in the Presidential chair by Southern hands? Let it be borne in mind that he would thus be elected for a purpose. The Southern Democrats now resuming the reins of their party, are engaged in no idle demonstration—they have their objects in view, practical measures which they propose for their own advantage to adopt, as will be seen by reference to the extraordinary list of bills cited in Senator Sherman's recent speech; and they mean to utilize the first President they are able to elect.—Tilden is now their man, and he is fitted for their purposes not only in the instability which he has so recently illustrated in the case of the Resumption Act, but by the essentially Southern proclivities which, as we have shown, he has often betrayed. Nothing but a patriotic uprising of the people will avert the danger.

MOB LAW.

A Champaign special special to the Globe Democrat of to day says:

Gov. Beveridge, J. G. Cannon and others, address a republican mass-meeting here on Wednesday next. The democratic mob which attacked the republican meeting in Urbana, Saturday night still orgates great excitement. The meeting was attended by colored people principally, and about fifty bruisers and rebels attempted to break it up by the vilest language and mob like behavior. When the colored men started for this city they were stoned, one seriously injured and several hurt. It was a most disgraceful affair. A large company will attend another meeting at Urbana on Saturday night, and if any more attacks are made a serious row will result. This mob has greatly strengthened the republican cause, and the entire district is incensed about it.

"KEEP your Ku-Klux off," said the colored Representative from South Carolina, "and not a negro will vote the Democratic ticket." And the House in response passed the Scott-Lord resolution; which was intended to keep the Ku-Klux off. The President proposes that the resolution of the House shall be enforced.

SHERMAN ON SILVER.

Senator Sherman, in a recent speech to his constituents, thus touched upon the subject of the remonetization of silver:

I do not now, fellow citizens, enter fully upon the great question of the old silver dollar as the money of account, for it has not yet assumed a party aspect. I have given the subject the most careful consideration, and was the first to propose the recoining the old silver dollar. That it will and ought to aid us greatly in the problem of specie resumption, I have no doubt. But there are connected with the issue of this dollar details about which there is and will be a wide diversity of opinion—how rapidly it can be coined, how far it shall be a legal tender, the purposes to which it shall be applied, whether to the redemption of greenbacks or the increase of our currency, the effect to demonetize gold and its true relation to gold. All this a wise man will consider before deciding.

I was a member of the conference committee of the two houses on the silver bill. I am not at liberty to state what occurred, except as is shown by the action of the two houses. Both houses were in favor of issuing the old dollar—the dollar in legal existence 1792, containing 412 8-10 grains, and only demonetized in 1873, when it was worth 2 per cent more than the gold dollar. It was then, and for twenty years had been, and it was the right of any debtor to pay in silver as well as gold dollars. It was his option. The relative value of the two metals had often varied before, and still the right remained to the debtor to pay in either dollar, and therefore, in the cheaper dollar. The mere disuse of the coinage of the silver dollar could not, and ought not to effect pre-existing contracts. And now, when all our domestic contracts have been based upon depreciated paper money, made a legal tender for all debts public or private, except customs and duties, and interest of the public debt, it would seem not only legal, but right, in the broadest sense of the term, that we should avail ourselves of the rapid and formidable fall of silver to recoin the old silver coins, including the old silver dollar, and with them pay our depreciated notes, and restore the gold coin standard. I believe a decided majority of both houses were in favor of this policy, but its execution is a work of time. There is a limit to our ability to coin silver pieces, and mints cannot be improvised in a year. So far we are agreed, and we could have agreed upon recoining the old silver dollar; but as to whether it ought to be received for customs duties, now payable in gold, or be paid out for interest on the public debt, we could not agree. We concluded, therefore, as it could not be coined for more than a year, to organize a commission, composed of members of both houses and of experts in coinage and exchange, with a view to collect and report the fullest information possible. Thus the question of the old silver dollar is postponed till next winter, when it may be decided with all the lights that discussion may throw upon it. I know that it can and ought to be made an instrument of resumption as well as a vast relief to all our industrial classes. These questions will be decided by the republican party, as all the great questions of the past sixteen years have been decided, and so as to advance the general interests of the people. The democratic party, as usual, will denounce what we do, then hesitate, then acquiesce, then approve, and then embrace.

THE ARCOLA RECORD COMES OUT FOR HAYES AND WHEELER.

HONEST INDEPENDENTS READ.

From the Record of the 18th.

Here We Go.

Every day we become more thoroughly convinced that the shrewd leaders of the democratic party in Illinois have so manipulated things as to virtually absorb the independent movement, so that it is impossible to work directly in the interests of that movement without building up said democratic party. If the present programme of those democratic wire workers who smile so benignly upon Uncle Peter Cooper, and the "greenback" cause, is carried out to repletion, the electoral college will be divided up between Hayes, Cooper and Tilden, and the house of representatives will have to select the president, in which event Tilden will of course be chosen. Or, the other plan of democratic sympathizers, to keep the Cooper and Cary enthusiasm up in hope to weaken the republican strength through the unalterable adhesion of republican independents to the latter ticket, while at least nine-tenths of the democratic independents will seek reform through the Tammany man, and vote to restore the old Mossback democratic party to an additional power, will possibly be worked to a charm. In the meantime every effort will be made to increase the ultra democratic strength in congress by the election of such greenback (?) reformers as John C. Black and A. J. Hunter.

Conscientiously believing that no worse misfortune could befall this country at present than the restoration of the democratic party to power, and finding no middle ground wherein to work that is not virtually ceded to democracy, we have made up our mind, of our own accord, without any promises of golden ducats or shekels of silver, henceforth to espouse the national union republican cause, and do all that we can to secure the election of Hayes and Wheeler and the republican ticket. This "with malice toward none," but with the firm conviction that it is not only our right, but our duty under the circumstances.

A DESPERADO KILLED.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Special to Daily Republican.

ARTHUR, ILL., Aug. 22.—Benjamin Piatt, living six miles south of Arthur, Ill., was accidentally shot and instantly killed, to-day. His uncle and another party started out hunting in a buggy and stopped here for dinner. The uncle and neighbor got out of the buggy leaving Ben. to take charge of the guns and team. He started to water the horses and one of the guns was discharged, the charge striking him just below the collar bone on the right side, ranging upward through his head, killing him instantly. The horses started to run, the remains fell backward, but not out of the buggy. The horses were soon stopped and the body taken care of by sympathizing friends.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The committee on judiciary of the city council, to whom was referred the resolution of the board of education, asking the council to investigate charges made against some members of the board in anonymous letters read in the council, reported, to-night, that "The charges made were so indefinite that the committee consider it unnecessary, futile and undesirable to investigate them." The only specific charge is that a ring existed in the board. This allegation cannot be proven or disproved by any power in the hands of the council, and it is, at any rate, a matter for the courts to try or for the personal reputation of members to bear." The anonymous charges referred to are those made by Hanford and others, and which were the cause of the Sullivan-Hanford shooting tragedy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—By an act passed at the recent session of congress, services of revenue gaugers, at wholesale liquor dealers' establishments will be dispensed with, on and after the 25th inst., and thereafter all packages of distilled liquor filled on the premises of a wholesale dealer, will have to be stamped. The internal revenue department will at once provide the collectors of internal revenue with the required stamps, to be used by dealers accompanied by instructions.

Vice President Ferry, having received a dispatch from Adams, clerk of the house of representatives, stating that he, with the body of Mr. Kerr, would arrive here tomorrow morning, has delayed his departure for Michigan, and will accompany the remains of the late speaker to their final resting place at New Albany, Indiana.

MASON CITY, Ill., Aug. 21.—About two years ago, a noted desperado of this place, named Zoph. Case, shot and killed Dr. Chamblin. He was tried for the deed and acquitted on a legal technicality. On Saturday evening last, John B. Wilson, formerly City Marshal, shot and instantly killed Case. The cause of the shooting was disrespectful language used in reference to Wilson's wife. Wilson is generally regarded as a benefactor in ridding the community of a notorious desperado, who has long been a terror to law abiding men.

LEAVENWORTH, Aug. 21.—A terrible wind and rain storm passed over a portion of western Missouri, especially along the Chicago and Rock Island railroad, Saturday evening. At Edgarton depot, several dwelling houses and shops were destroyed, and two or three occupants seriously injured. Several bridges on the railroad were badly damaged, large trees were uprooted or twisted off like pipe stems, and crops, corn in particular, laid flat on the ground. Damage done within the space of thirty miles square, is estimated at over $100,000.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—Two young men, Henry and Squire Hammond, who were in jail in Owenton, Owen county, Kentucky, for the murder of a highly respected citizen of Owenton, Robert Matlin, were taken from the jail about one o'clock Saturday morning last, by a masked band of forty men and hung upon a tree near the town.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Aug. 21.—John T. Alexander, of Morgan county, known as the "Cattle King of the Mississippi valley," returned from the east a few days ago, sick, and ever since has been growing worse. His physician says his recovery is impossible, and that he will not probably survive another day.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—It is reported this evening, that a school mistress was waylaid a few days since, at Glencoe, and outrages after which the Indians cut out her tongue and otherwise maltreated her person. No names or further particulars yet.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 21.—When the remains of the late Speaker Kerr arrive here, Sergeant-at-Arms Thompson will take charge of them. He is in favor of having them lie in state one day in the rotunda of the capital.—Speaker Sayler, before leaving last night for Rock Bridge Alum Springs, also favored such a course. This will depend very much on the feelings of Mrs. Kerr, in this respect.

LEW. STEWARD.

From the New York Public, Aug. 17.

The individual nominated for Governor by the "Tilden and Reform" party in Illinois is a fine specimen of his class. That he is ignorant, coarse and profane may perhaps be a matter of taste, if the people of Illinois want such a Governor. His views on financial topics, however, are suggestive. He was one of those who voted that the war was a failure before it begun, and after it ended. For four years he hoarded his crops, refusing to take $2.25 per bushel in legal tenders for his wheat because, as he said, "the dash dashed money was no account," and it was his firm belief that a loaf of bread would soon cost a cart-load of such rags. Ultimately, however, he concluded to take $1.50 per bushel in legal tenders for his four years' crop of wheat, and since that time his temper has been precisely that of the Missouri Democrat who said, shaking a greenback, "You made us take that stuff at the point of the bayonet; now we will make you take more than you want of it." As the most noisy and blatant inflationist of Illinois, he was enthusiastically nominated for Governor by the party of "Tilden and Reform."

COME BACK.—The Arcola Record, which has been an Independent paper ever since the grange movement sprang up, has come out for Hayes and Wheeler, as will be seen in an article from its columns, which we reproduce in to-day's paper.

The officers are expecting one of the finest displays of stock ever gathered in the State.

..The meeting of Sunday-school superintendents and teachers will take this week on Thursday evening at the Christian church. A full attendance of all Sunday-school workers is desired.

The Chicago Excursion.—The Chicago excursion train which left at 9:30 this morning, consisted of five coaches and a baggage car, which were well filled. It is thought that about 200 people went from here. The route of the excursion is over the T., W. & W. R. R. to Tolono, and thence to Chicago by the Illinois Central.

International Novelty Combination.—This really superior company will appear at the Opera House on Saturday evening, Aug. 26th. The troupe is under the immediate management of Mr. Edwin Browne, so long and favorably known as the manager of Katie Putnam. Mr. Browne is one of the best and most legitimate managers in the country, and his name alone should be sufficient guarantee that the troupe will be all that is claimed for it. The list of his company includes some of the best known talent of the operatic, dramatic, acrobatic and minstrel features of the stage.

The Bloomington Excursion.—The excursion to Bloomington this morning, under the auspices of the Antioch Baptist church, took a good many colored people from town, and would have taken many more but for the early hour at which the train left. The cars appropriated to the use of the excursionists went with the regular train which leaves here at 5:26 in the morning. From appearances we should judge that something more than a hundred persons went.

To-Night.—The exhibition game of billiards, to-night, at Noyes & Brooker's hall, is attracting a good deal of attention in sporting circles. Billy Burleigh is a billiardist worth seeing. Admission, 25 cents.

EXCURSIONS,

And their Effect Upon Decatur.

How inconsistent with the best interests of the community is the practice so prevalent among the churches and societies in our city, of spending time and money "excursing" to St. Louis, Springfield, Terre Haute, Chicago; and even the little inland towns, devoid of all attraction and interest, get their share.—Thousands of dollars are sent out of Decatur in this way, to say nothing of the ready cash which the patrons of such enterprises distribute in the large cities for articles which could be bought at home for less money—and often the same money ought in justice to be applied on some old standing account at home; and it is astonishing with what confidence the same persons will advertise for patronage, or circulate a subscription for this or that cause, as though they were entitled to the most profound consideration, whatever their appeal might be. A thoughtful public should carefully scan such persons and see to it that they spend their money with those who will circulate it at home, and thus encourage home interests, and crush out those leeches upon home enterprise.

AN OBSERVER.

Street Excitement.—This morning about seven o'clock, an attempt was made to arrest a colored man known by the name of Pete White, he being charged with entering the saloon of Andrew Rothfuss and taking therefrom about five dollars in money. Pete declared his innocence, and objected to going along. A crowd soon gathered, and officer Wilkinson called on a bystander to assist in making the arrest.—About this time Mr. John Ullrich came along, and being personally acquainted with the accused man, Pete signified his willingness to go with him to the office of Justice Albert. Here a crowd soon gathered, a large proportion of which were colored men, and most of these were in sympathy with Pete. It seems that the bystander upon whom the officer called for assistance, was Charley Marshall, and the colored men seemed to think that he was not a very proper character to be entrusted with the execution of the law, and one of them expressed himself to that effect in very plain terms. This lead to menacing demonstrations between the two, when officer Brockway collared the colored man and put him down stairs.

After a little parleying in the Justice's office, the case was continued, while witnesses might be subpœnaed. As soon as possible witnesses were called, and a preliminary hearing had, which resulted in holding Pete in the sum of $100. In default of bail he was committed.

Ball by the Fire Department.—On the night of Sept. 14th, the Fire Department of Decatur will give a grand ball for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expenses incident to the State Tournament, which takes place here Oct. 9th. Arrangements are already in progress, and it is the intention of the Department to make it the grandest affair of the kind that ever came off in this city. We call attention to it thus early that our citizens may know what a treat is in store for them, and arrange to enjoy it.

Row at a Picnic.—On Saturday last a Granger picnic was held in some grove about three miles south of Niantic, and while most of those in attendance were orderly, well-disposed people, there was a gang of roughs who seemed disposed to make all the trouble they could.—These fellows were, some of them, very impudent to some of the getters-up of the picnic, and words finally led to blows. As we are informed by a gentleman who was present, some of the roughs in question went through the crowd striking right and left with knucks, and hitting persons to whom not a word had been said, and who had no connection whatever with the affray, knives were also used freely. Mr. S. A. Whitesides, we understand, was quite badly cut, and several others were injured more or less. Several of the rowdies were arrested as soon as warrants could be procured, and were to have a trial at Niantic yesterday. We were not able to obtain the names of any of the persons arrested. It is spoken of as a very disgraceful affair on the part of those who intruded themselves upon the company and raised the disturbance.

A Fall Down Stairs.—Yesterday afternoon an elderly lady by the name of Gordan, mother-in-law of S. G. Washburn, of Macon, had occasion to go up the stairway leading to the council chamber. Upon starting to come down, when she came to the top of the stairway, she by some means made a misstep and fell from the top to the bottom. At first she was supposed to be very badly hurt, and she was lifted up by persons present and taken to the rear part of Jack & Son's store. Upon examination it was found that no bones were broken, though her face was considerably bruised and her wrist badly sprained; she also complained somewhat of injury to her back. Her escape from more serious injuries was indeed remarkable.

THE LORD'S DAY.

Elder Haynes occupied the pulpit at the Christian church on Sunday, both morning and evening, and the attendance at each service was very good. In the morning he preached a very interesting sermon on the "Desecration of the Lord's day." He spoke of the Sabbath, or the seventh day of the week, which was observed by the Jews, as commemorating the creation and the resting of the Creator on the seventh day, and the Lord's day, or the first day of the week, which we observe, and which commemorates the resurrection of our Savior. We have no command to observe this day, as the Jews did to observe the Sabbath; but, as a precedent to such observance, we have the example of the Apostles who were inspired of God, and who met on the first day of every week to commemorate the death and resurrection of Christ. He then contrasted with this the fearful desecration of this first day of the week at the present time, and referred especially to Sunday excursions. Parties conducting these may reconcile their consciences by saying that they have the liberty to do so. But all persons who have a love and respect for themselves and their fellow-men, and who have a due regard for civil and religious liberty, will not patronize such things. Some of the things done in this city, three weeks ago last Sunday, were referred to as not being calculated to elevate even a man's moral nature. And men who claim to be the "workingman's friend," and who then take the laboring man, who has toiled hard all the week, and haul him a hundred miles in a crowded car, and return him at the hour of midnight or later, are far from being the "workingman's friend" in reality. Many persons who profess to be christians, but who fail far short of their duty by staying at home on the Lord's day, or by patronizing such shameful and disgraceful exercises or entertainments, or otherwise favoring them, are held accountable to a very great extent for the fearful desecration of this day.

In the evening the speaker delivered a plain and interesting discourse in answering the question, "What is Sectarianism?" The word sect was defined and shown to be used in other than a religious sense—it was considered in the latter sense; and Sectarianism itself was traced from the beginning to the present day. The discourse was received with good attention and apparently a deep interest.

A Forger Arrested.—This morning soon after ten o'clock a gentleman presented himself at the counter of J. Millikin & Co.'s bank and passed to the teller a check drawn in favor of C. T. Marsh for $425, bearing the signature of James Keefe. The fact of the man being a stranger, together with some intimations which had been given to the bank officers, led the clerk to suspect that all was not right, and the check, and the man presenting it, were held until Officer Brockway was found, who took the man into custody, on suspicion of the check being a forgery. It was soon ascertained that Mr. Keefe had signed no such check, and the man was at once taken before Justice Hughes, where he waived an examination until to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. His bail was fixed at $1,000, in default of which he was committed to await an examination as above. The alleged forger is a man about 50 years of age, and has the general appearance of a wealthy cattle dealer. He did not seem to manifest any concern. He has been about town three or four days, and claims that he received the check of other parties.—Those who are acquainted with Mr. Keefe's handwriting say that the forgery is a good imitation.

Narrow Escape—This forenoon Dr. J. W. Routh's horse and buggy was standing at the depot platform with a lady and little girl in the vehicle, when by some means the horse became frightened and started to run, the lady having hold of the reins. In turning partly around the buggy careened over far enough to throw the lady out, bruising her somewhat. The little girl clung to the carriage, which soon uprighted itself. A young man finally succeeded in getting hold of the reins and brought the team to a halt without damage to either horse or buggy. The lady was taken to a residence near by, where, after recovering from her fright it was ascertained that her injuries were not serious.

MILLIONS

Physicians Cornered!

I suppose there is not in the whole of a physician's experience anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal suffering from the fearful disease of Rheumatism. Heretofore there has been considerable diversity of opinion among medical men as to the true character of this disease; some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disorder, but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will be better satisfied and rejoice more than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a true cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a Boston business man cannot fail to satisfy all that the

is a wonderful Medical Discovery.

—o—

Home Testimony.

BOSTON, Jan. 1st, 1875.

PROF. ALPHONSE HILLER:

Dear Sir—I desire to state that for the past three years I have been troubled greatly troubled with rheumatic pains; so severe was the last attack that I was compelled to remain in bed a helpless sufferer, and this is the most hurried season of my business too. A friend brought me two bottles of your valuable medicine, the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC Cure, and with pleasure I state that those two bottles affected a permanent cure upon me. Six months have since passed, and no return of this terrible disease has troubled me; I have on various occasions since recommended the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE to several of my afflicted neighbors, and always with a uniform result—a certain and perfect cure in each case. I am willing to be interviewed and verbally satisfy any fellow sufferer of the truth of this statement.

Yours respectfully,
P. SHEEAN, Merchant Tailor,
83 Sudbury Street.

The discoverer of this medicine has walked the aisles of the hospitals of London and Paris for the last twenty years, making Rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. For the past year it has been used with perfect success and satisfaction in the hospitals of Montreal, and is recommended by the very best practitioners in that city as a safe, speedy and positive cure of either gout or rheumatism.

In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles.

This medicine is for sale by all Druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to CONSUMPTION!

Can be Cured.

This FACT has been fully demonstrated in more than 10,000 CASES,

—BY—

Dr. S. D. HOWE,

of New York, the GREAT

CONSUMPTION DOCTOR

Proprietor of the

Arabian Medicines,

Celebrated throughout the world for their remarkable cures. Consumption can most certainly be cured by the use of Dr. Howe's Arabian Milk Cure!

Dr. Howe's Arabian Tonic!
Dr. Howe's Arabian Liver Pills!

The PILLS, by the use of which the liver is aroused into healthy action, the stomach cleansed, and the bowels regulated.

The ARABIAN TONIC cleanses the system of all corruption, makes new blood, gives strength, and creates an appetite, and expels from the lungs through the blood the corruption which scrofula breeds upon them.

The ARABIAN MILK CURE strengthens the weak lungs, promotes expectoration, dissolves the mucous phelgm, and assists nature in throwing off the unhealthy matter, causing the irritation, and thus consumption may be cured.

☞ Price of Milk Cure and Tonic, each $1.00 per bottle; six for $5.00. Pills, 25 cents per box; five boxes for $1.00.

CHAIN PUMPS!

THE SUBSCRIBER WOULD RESPECTfully announce to the citizens of Decatur and Macon and adjoining counties, that he has secured the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT to

MANUFACTURE AND SELL

MERRILL & BARTLETT'S

Water-Purifying

Rubber Bucket Chain Pump,

And is prepared to furnish said Chain Pumps on short notice.

The advantages of this Pump over many others are many. The Chain being buttonless, it is much lighter, consequently it is not liable to break, and works much easier. The RUBBER BUCKETS which are attached to the Chain will not wear the Tubing; consequently it will last longer than when Metal Buttons are used. It is positively ANTI-FREEZING. It is a positive WATER PURIFIER, as each Bucket is constructed with an AIR CHAMBER, which carries a given quantity of pure air into the water, which immediately diffuses through the entire body of water, purifying and cleaning, and rendering it fit for use.
